Note 1: Students must complete a total of 128 credits for graduation. They include 30 credits of University Required Credits, 4 credits of College Core Courses, 41 credits of Departmental Core courses, and 48.5 credits for the "Speech-Language Pathology Program" or 47.5 credits for the "Audiology Program" (choose one). Any remaining credits required for graduation can be fulfilled by elective courses other than general education, as well as credits from the "Long-Term Care in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology Module" courses or the "Early Intervention and School Services in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology Modules" courses.

Note 2: Students who complete the "Speech-Language Pathology Program" with passing grades and obtain a graduation certificate are eligible to take the "National Speech-Language Pathologist Licensure Examination." Students who complete the "Audiology Program" with passing grades and obtain a graduation certificate are eligible to take the “National Audiologist Licensure Examination."

Note 3: Students who choose an alternative internship program in their third year are not required to complete the departmental internship courses (including those from the third to the fourth year). To be eligible for a Bachelor's degree from this Department, students must complete the core professional curriculum plus elective and free elective courses totaling 62 credits, and fulfill the remaining credit requirements via courses from other departments.

Important: Graduates under this track are not eligible to sit for the National Professional and Technical Examinations for "Speech-Language Pathologist" or "Audiologist."

Note 4: Students who do not complete the 62-credit requirement (core, professional elective, and free elective courses) must apply for a University-level or College-level Bachelor's degree. In such cases, students must complete the required Interdisciplinary Module courses to fulfill graduation requirements before being awarded an Asia University (University-level) or College-level Bachelor's degree.

Note 5: In addition to the required courses outlined in the curriculum, students must also pass the school's Chinese, English, and information literacy requirements to graduate.
